

About NAPO-Chicago Members...

- Our members are part of a national network of highly-skilled efficiency experts helping clients maximize not only home and office space, but also their most valuable resource—time.
- Their specialties cover every imaginable aspect of residential organizing (e.g., kitchens, closets, garages, attics, basements, estate sales, and relocations) and business organizing (e.g., office layouts, paper and computer files, time management, training, and public speaking).
- We work with every kind of client, including business owners, families, seniors, and those with special needs.

About the Organizing Industry...

- Professional organizing has become chic, and working with an organizer is the latest status symbol!
- Organizing is featured in current television programs like Clean Sweep, Mission: Organization, Clean House, Life Laundry and NeatTV.
- Almost every issue of popular magazines includes an organizing article.
- Retail stores such as Bed, Bath & Beyond, The Container Store and others cater to a huge public need to get better organized.

About NAPO...

- Founded in 1985 as the premier national association dedicated to the field of organizing
- National membership exceeds 4,500 organizers in 32 chapters across the country
- More than 135,000 clients served nationally by NAPO members in 2006

About NAPO-Chicago...

- Founded in 1989; now one of the largest and fastest-growing chapters in the nation
- Membership includes 100+ individual business owners with a wide range of backgrounds and specialties
